A little bit of history

The Red Lion is one of the original Harvey Houses purchased sometime between 1851-1900. Situated on the original A27, visible on a 1937 map the brewery holds, the pub had been a regular stop for drivers until the A27 bypass was moved further north circa 1998. The pub is still the hub of the community, and has been recently refurbished to include it's beautiful patio area, expanded dining venue, and extra parking.
