A little bit of history

The Red Lion is one of the original Harvey Houses, purchased sometime between 1851 and 1900. Situated on the original A27 - visible on a map from 1937 the brewery holds - the pub was a regular stop for drivers, until the A27 bypass was moved further north, sometime around 1998.

The pub is still very much the hub of the local community, and was recently refurbished to include a beautiful patio area, luxurious expanded dining venue, as well as plenty of extra parking.
